
Each small marker is one system (mean over 5 seeds); large hollow markers are the means over systems; grey lines join a system's capped and natural points.